LETTER LAUNCHES CHEST CAMPAIGN

The 1959 Palm Springs Community Chest campaign got off to an unofficial start here yesterday with the mailing of approximately 200 letters to prospective sponsors of the $80,000 drive slated to begin next month.

Lester Selig, president of the Chest this year, told The Desert Sun that the letters were earmarked for "citizens who have demonstrated in the past their high degree of civic consciousness, their pride in their community."

SEelig SAID THAT the campaign, scheduled as a lightning-fast 40-day drive here, will seek to make all Village residents aware of their responsibilities to such character-moulding organizations as the Boys Club, Welfare and Friendly Aid and Health Center, Youth Center, Palm Springs Safety Council and five other activities.

Selig's letter noted that recipients would be contacted for aid in furthering the Village Chest campaign.

"I assume," Selig said, "that you are aware of the fact that the United Fund will not function this year. The Fund was abandoned, at least temporarily, because of the diversity of causes for which it solicited."

THE LETTER SPECIFIED that the Chest campaign will represent the "most important philanthropic drive" — the responsibility of financing strictly local needs.

"This particular drive," Selig declared, "is for your community."

'Sheer Madness to Let New World War Come to a Head,' Khrushchev

India Still Wants China Reds in U.N.

Nationalist China Ouster First Item At General Assembly

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. — (UPI) — India goes before the United Nations today to demand the admission of Communist China despite her own blazing border dispute with Peiping and the Reds' suppression of the Tibetan revolt.

India's insistence on giving Nationalist China's seat to the Communist mainland Communists was executed to produce the first diplomatic fireworks of the 14th annual session of the U. N. General Assembly, which convened Tuesday.

THE FULL ASSEMBLY was not scheduled to meet again until Thursday but the Indian proposal to kick Nationalist China out of the world group in favor of the Peiping regime may be the first item to go before the 21-member steering committee, which today sets the Assembly agenda for debate.

The United States was prepared to move, as it has in years past, that the Assembly table the question of Chinese representation during the current session.

IT WAS BELIEVED world reaction to Red China's suppression of the anti-Communist revolt in Tibet last March would produce a wider margin than last year's 44-28 vote in favor of the American motion to shelve India's demand, once the Assembly considered it.

Rebels Escape Laotian Trap

VIETNAME, Laos (UPI) — Communist Pathet Lao rebel troops withdrawing northward in Red-threatened Samneua Province apparently have eluded government columns attempting to spring a jungle trap on them, Laotian army sources said today.

ENROLLMENT ON the second day of school last year was 2,989, Dr. Twist said he expects the school district's student roster to hit a peak of 3,640 by year's end. Enrollment by schools, with last year's second-day enrollment in brackets, was:

CAHUILLA SCHOOL, 406 (269); Cathedral City School, 308 (287); Cielo Vista School, 397 (429); Desert Hot Springs, 162 (155); Katherine Finch, 361 (331); Frances S. Stevens, 187 (203); Nellie N. Coffman, 502 (466); and Palm Springs High School, 935 (849).

NIKITI GETS BID TO TEST COURSE AT INDIAN WELLS

Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev was today offered a standing invitation to try his hand at golf on the fairways of Indian Wells Country Club.

Khrushchev, who's scheduled to visit Los Angeles Saturday, was invited to bring his traveling party to the plush resort country club by Club President Milt Hicks.

"And if he doesn't know how to play the game, I'll be happy to give him a few lessons," added Eddie Susalla, club pro and manager.

Mother, Infant Slain by Iowa Honor Student

AMES, Iowa — (UPI) — This quiet college town was stunned today by the senseless killing of a young mother and her adopted daughter by an honor student at Iowa State University.

Police said they were set upon Tuesday by Harry McDaniel, 20.

McDANIEL OFFERED no explanation for strangling the two, police said, except to explain that he has had "momentary urges to kill."

County Attorney Donald J. Nelson said McDaniel was watching the arrival of Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev in this country when he got up from the television and walked outside.

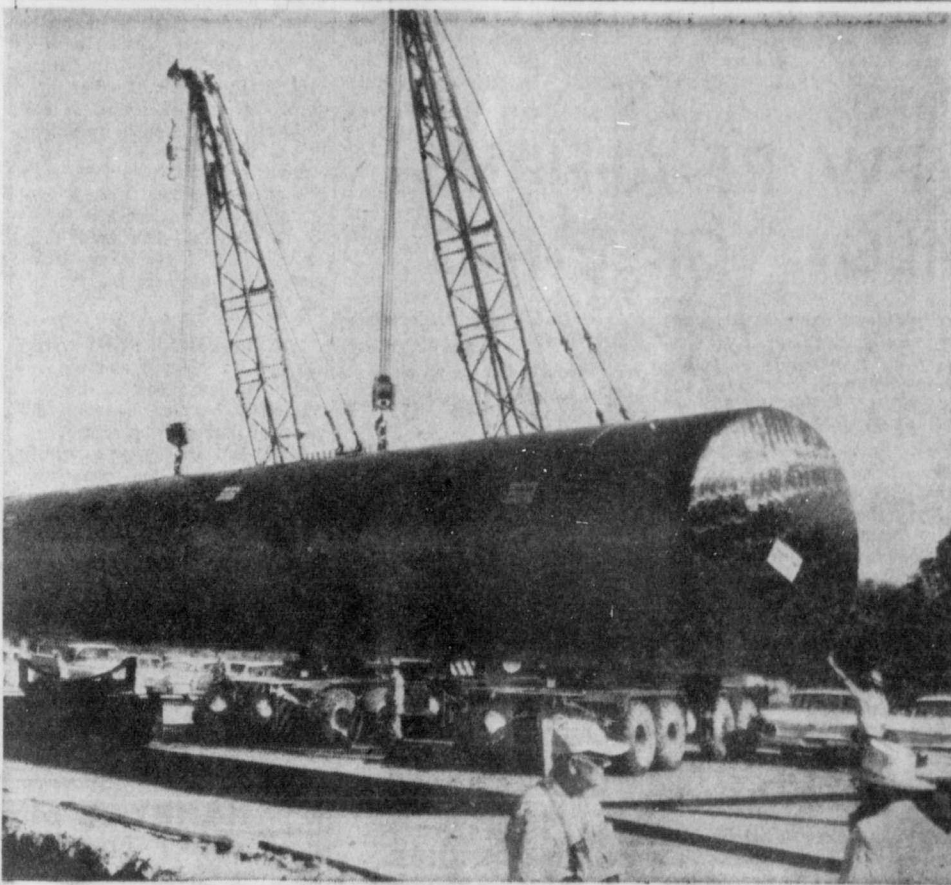

McDANIEL WALKED two doors away, Nelson said, and entered the home of Harold Larson, a graduate student at the university. Larson's wife, Monica, 25, was carrying the baby, Kimar Ann, 4 months, from a hallway when McDaniel entered the front room.

Red Leader Tells Aims Of U.S. Trip

Addresses Press Club Luncheon In Washington

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev said today that "it would be sheer madness to allow a new world war to come to a head."

Unless the United States and Russia work together for peace, he said, "the earth will be covered with ashes and graves."

SPEAKING BEFORE a National Press Club luncheon, he declared that "the Soviet people have long made their choice for peace."

"We are convinced that the American people also are for peace," he said.

Earlier in his speech, he said that "we have come to your country with an open heart."

"WE ARE NOT HERE to beg for anything or to force anything on you. Our aim is to see you, country, its great people, which has made a tremendous contribution to the development of mankind, to meet your statesmen and public leaders, and to have useful discussions on all questions which today agitate the peoples of our countries and the whole of mankind."

"We want to reach agreement with the strong and thereby reach agreement with all countries on the abolition of the cold war," he said.

"ALL COUNTRIES will gain by this in equal measure." He said it seems "strange" that some people have expressed "apprehensions" about his exchange of visits with President Eisenhower, as if the Soviet Union had "some sinister designs in expressing readiness to improve its relations with the United States."

"These allegations are simply ridiculous," he said. "We have no intention of producing a quarrel among anybody."

"ON THE CONTRARY, we are taking every measure to have good relations not only with the U. S., but also with its allies. We would like the meetings between statesmen of the U.S.S.R. and U.S. to contribute in turn to the further improvement of relations between the Soviet Union and the United Kingdom, between the Soviet Union and France and other allies of the U. S."

The speech was the highlight of Khrushchev's second day in the United States.

WILLIAM H. LAWRENCE of the New York Times, president of the National Press Club, introduced Khrushchev with the quip that "today we have moved you into the ballroom and out of the kitchen where 'you debated with Vice President Nixon.' Khrushchev smiled broadly at this.

AFL-CIO CHARGES GOVERNMENT HURTS ECONOMIC GROWTH

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — The AFL-CIO Executive Council charged Tuesday that economic growth in the United States is being throttled by "restrictive government policies" in the name of fighting "non-existent runaway inflation."

In a report prepared for the AFL-CIO convention opening here Thursday, the council claimed that in the past six years the national output has slowed to an average rate of 2.7 percent increase per year.

In the previous six years, the average increase was 4.6 percent and the nation's minimum goal should be 5 percent a year, the report said.

If Bills Signed

Council to Start Airport Action

Palm Springs City Council is expected to pass a resolution next Wednesday night proposing the purchase of the Palm Springs Airport from the Agua Caliente Indian Tribe, provided that President Eisenhower signs the equalization and land lease bills prior to that day.

The President has 10 days from the passage of the bill by the House and Senate in which to affix his signature.

IN THE MEANTIME, in Palm Springs the Agua Caliente Indians are jubilant over the action taken by the House of Representatives and the United States Senate, which ended a five year long battle to have the bills enacted into law.

At a meeting of the Agua Caliente Tribal Council yesterday the group publicly thanked Congressman D. S. Saund, Senators Clair Engle and Thomas Kuchel "and all the others" for the part they played in getting the bills through Congress.

"I am glad it is through," said Tribal Chairman Eileen Miguel. "I and I for one will be very happy when development of the Indian

VFW RE-AFFIRMS SILENT GREETING

Officers of the Veterans of Foreign Wars 21st California District have re-affirmed their intent to maintain a "dignified silence" when Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev visits the Southland this week.

The plan to uphold a resolution for the "silent treatment," drafted by the National VFW convention this year, was voiced at the district meeting conducted at the Chi Chi restaurant Sunday.

DISTRICT VFW members will exercise the resolution when the Soviet Premier visits Los Angeles Saturday.

More than 100 members of the VFW and its auxiliaries from all parts of California gathered at the Chi Chi for the district meeting.

DIGNITARIES greeted by local Frontier Post 5987 Commander Robin C. Barrett and Auxiliary President Louise Paul included

District Commander Jesse Smith, Auxiliary Department of California President Meta Erbeck and District Auxiliary President Katherine Spargur.

Other items included on the district meeting agenda were plans for a strong program in youth activities and greater efforts in aids to cancer research.

DISTRICT OFFICIALS said that more than $92,000 in aid grants were given to VFW members stricken by cancer in the State of California during a one-year period.

It was also announced that 3,000 packages of desert-grown dates were distributed by district auxiliaries at the National Encampment.

Quick Action On DHS Dump Is Promised

Chamber Protests Location in View Of Area Residents

DESERT HOT SPRINGS — County officials today promised quick action on a request to move the community's waste disposal site from the line of sight of Desert Hot Springs.

Paul Stout, head of the county road department's waste disposal division, said he is studying the possibility of shifting the dump site "around the hill" east of its present location so that it will be hidden from view by area residents.

STOUT'S REPORT followed a complaint, filed by Chamber of Commerce President Robert Lester, charging that constant burning and dumping of loose garbage makes the dump an unsightly nuisance and possible health hazard.

Lester asked that the dump be moved from its present location on Long Canyon Road two miles east of Desert Hot Springs to a point further east where it cannot be viewed from the community.

Stout said the county currently has an arrangement with a local citizen to pick up and haul waste to the site. But, Stout said, there isn't sufficient equipment available locally for adequate cut and fill operations.

COUNTY EQUIPMENT visits the site for cleanup and cover work "at least once a month."

Authorized burning, however, disposes of much of the refuse.

Stout said the burning will be outlawed when the countywide burning ordinance goes into effect on Jan. 1, 1962.

Meanwhile, Stout said the dump situation here is now under study and his department is considering the possibility of moving the dump site about one-half mile east of the present location.

New Peace Plan To Be Unveiled By De Gaulle

PARIS — UPI — President Charles de Gaulle unveils a new plan today which may bring peace to revolt-torn Algeria — or, at least, pacify critics of France in the United Nations.

De Gaulle discussed his 12-page report on the plan with his cabinet early today. At noon, he began recording it on film and tape.

THE PLAN IS known to provide for "pacification" and "self-determination" in Algeria. De Gaulle will explain the meanings of these terms in his broadcast report tonight.

The report is being transcribed because De Gaulle will not subject himself to the hot lights used in night telecasts.

A DUPLICATE tape will be flown by jet to Algeria, where the speech will be broadcast at the same time as in France.

More Purges Looming for Red Chinese

'Rightist' Opponents Of Mao's Regime Face Liquidation

TOKYO — UPI — Peiping Radio hinted today that Chinese Communist boss Mao Tse-Tung may be preparing a drastic new purge of "rightist" opponents of the Red regime.

The Communist New China News Agency reported that Mao held a top-level meeting in Peiping Tuesday at which measures were discussed to "counter rightward tendencies" on the Red-held mainland.

IN COMMUNIST terminology, this means cracking down on elements who do not toe the line laid down by Mao.

Comrade Mao Tse-Tung made an important statement at the meeting, the New China News Agency in a brief report on the huddle.

IT DID NOT disclose what Mao said.

The Communist agency said at the same time Mao and the others discussed granting pardons to criminals and former "rightist" opponents who have seen the errors of their ways.

Dear Abby...

...by Abigail VanBuren

DEAR ABBY: For crying out loud, haven't you ever heard of the Mendelian Law of Heredity? A man asked you if it was too late to take a blood test to determine whether he was the father of a three-year-old child who had blue eyes and blond hair when he and his wife were both dark-eyed and black-haired. And you advised him to go ahead and take the blood test! One with any knowledge of heredity knows that this could be the result of recessive genes, and the child could have been his. You usually defend the woman. How come you let this one down?

PHILADELPHIA LAWYER DEAR ABBY: The man's question was: "Is it too late to take a blood test when the child is three? Or must it be done while the child is an infant?" I replied, "The blood type never changes. You can take the tests any time with equal success." The man indicated in his letter that his wife's behavior was not above suspicion. I assumed the man knew his wife better than I did.

DEAR ABBY: After four years of marriage, my husband still tells me he loves me, calls me twice a day when he's at work, brings home every cent of his pay check, helps me with the housework, stays home every night and goes to church with me every Sunday. But he does have one vice. FISHING: How can I, without appearing to be selfish, let him know I don't want him to go fishing?

DEAR "WIDOW": To begrudge this jewel of a husband his one simple hobby, would be casting for a whale of a lot of trouble. If he invites you to go along, go. If he prefers to go "solo" or with "the boys" — kiss him goodbye, be sure he takes his life preserver, and send him on his way. And smile, sister.

DEAR ABBY: I am 24 years old and recently had my first baby. My husband has started to call me "Mommy". My husband is 32 years old.

Abby, I just hate it. I am not his "Mommy". His mother is living and she is about 60. Maybe this shouldn't irritate me the way it does, but I can't help it. I have told him to quit calling me "Mommy" but he says it just slips out. Now, what should I do?

"ANYTHING BUT MOMMY" DEAR ANYTHING: Simmer down. You have already asked your husband to quit calling you "Mommy" which is all you can do. Perhaps when you address the baby you refer to yourself as "Mommy" (which is only natural). Be a little more understanding; one day you might catch yourself calling him "Daddy".

Love Triangle Blamed in Death Of Polar Bear

SAN FRANCISCO (UP) — A 30-year-old female polar bear named Gooftus, a favorite at Fleishbacker Zoo here since 1937, was killed this week during a savage attack by her new mate.

He attacker was a 10-year-old bear known as John Long. He was brought here just one month ago from the Detroit Zoo.

Zoo officials speculated on the possibility of a triangle affair. A risky, 6-year-old female named Marsha watched the fatal attack from the sidelines.

Zoo director Carey Baldwin said John and Marsha hit it off "real well"—but that John "apparently didn't go for Gooftus."

ONE OF THE MOST unusual romantic interludes ever staged for a movie takes place in "North by Northwest," with Cary Grant and Eva Marie Saint as the pair who fall in love when Miss Saint hides fugitive Grant in her drawing room on a Chicago-bound train. James Mason also stars in the new Alfred Hitchcock thriller for MGM, now playing at the Plaza.

COUNTY DELAYS ON TRAILER PARK PLEA

Monday's hearing on an appeal by Leo Gogerty of Anaheim on denial of his application for a permit to establish a trailer park on Bennet Road south of Dillon Road in the Desert Crest area near Desert Hot Springs was continued to 10 a. m., Oct. 19, to allow time for Gogerty and the Planning Commission to attempt to arrive at flood control protection measures acceptable to both.

Gogerty's engineer, J. W. Reagan of Santa Ana, said application of a one-in-a-100-year possibility of floods in the area is unrealistic. He argued that the "probability" rather than the "possibility" should be considered, and he said the "probability" is improbable. "The San Andreas fault might slip and shove us all into the ocean," said Reagan. "but it's not likely. It's possible, but it's not probable."

Planning Director Tyler Sues said present water flow over the area does not follow a specific course and it could spread out in a wide area unless confined to a definite channel.

Reagan argued that the trailer site is on a ridge and flood waters would run down each side of the property rather than over it. He said that even if it should be flooded the inundation would be no more than one foot deep.

Mrs. Keenan, a Cabazon resident who works at Santa Fe Federal Savings and Loan in Palm Springs, said she plans to work to make Cabazon a "normal city, instead of the butt of jokes." She hopes to help build up the city's industry and residential population. Another new city appointment is that of Max Franz, 40-year-old former Los Angeles insurance claims adjuster, who was named Cabazon police chief. He succeeds acting chief J. T. ## BANK'S FACILITIES 'EASY' FOR DURBIN

Designing and supervising the construction of the most modern and appropriate interior desert banking facilities may seem an over-whelming task to most, but Bill Durbin, Security First National Bank, Citizens Division, construction and maintenance specialist, made the job look easy.

Under the supervision of Gil Lehman, Manager of Operations Department, who directed the entire construction of the building.

Because the building of Security's new $40,000 Ramon Branch in Palm Springs, designed by Joseph B. Wong, A.I.A., Phoenix, Arizona, was so modern, Durbin felt standard bank fixtures and furniture features would not complement the building.

THEREFORE, HE designed furniture so modern and appropriate to convenient banking that a number of the special furniture features were patented and are now in production by the Steel Case Company of Michigan.

"The newly designed 1300 line has never been used before by any bank," Durbin said. "We at Security have done everything possible to give the Ramon Road, Branch the most outstanding banking facilities from coast to coast."

"BECAUSE EVERY Branch of Security National Bank is designed for its location, and because Palm Springs is known the world over as an outstanding resort, we felt nothing short of the complete new line of furniture would be fitting," he added.

Durbin, 34, who came to the bank in 1957, spent over six months building mock models of bank furniture starting with the teller's line and finishing with the new waste-paper baskets, before the perfect finished designs were complete.

HE BEGAN his work with furniture design in 1945 while studying agricultural design at Compton Jr. College. Later he opened his own business in Redlands where he did reconditioning work and designed homes. He continued in his own business until joining Security.

Durbin served with the United States Army attached to the Air Force during World War II, and received the Purple Heart with a cluster in 1946.

He met his wife, the former Barbara May Berg while at Loderman General Hospital in San Francisco. The couple reside at 4363 Second Street, and have two sons, Michael William, 12, and Steven Paul, 10.

NEW LEAGUE READY FOR ACTION

29 Palms Fields Fast Grid Team

(The following is the first of a series of stories on the football prospects of the new Desert-Valley League, successor to the former Riverside County League. Palm Springs High plays in the new league this year. Its opponents will be Banning, Coachella Valley, Yucaipa, Twentynine Palms and Indio High schools. Articles on the other schools, by Desert Sun staff reporters, will follow before the start of the playing season Sept. 25.)

The darkhorse of the new Desert Valley League football circuit will be the Twentynine Palms Wildcats, coached by Eugene V. Moffett.

Moving up from the Arrowhead circuit where the Twentynine Palms High School (the smallest in the league) posted an impressive 7-1 season mark last year, no grid seer is making a pre-season prediction of the team's abilities.

BUT MOFFETT is setting pretty, and has a nucleus of eight returning players to spark the Wildcats to an enviable top position in the new league.

Playing from a T and double wing formation, the green and white uniformed players will have Bill Nua and Jim Hodges taking over the ground-gaining chores in the backfield, and up front in the guard position will be 170 pound Joe McKenna, one of the teams key players.

OTHER TOP PERFORMERS who are being checked for first team work are potential ends Jerry White, Charles Schaezle, Louis Gadies and Ted Sandrowski, ranging from 130 to 170 pounds; tackles Robert St. Clare, Charles Lipot and Tom Czechowski.

In guard position, four boys, all weighing in at about 160 pounds are Joe McKenna (almost assured of the spot), Terry Olsen, Mike Schreves, and Tom Watkins, are trying out, and among the tryouts for center are Harold Weiborn, King Thathenurst and Chester Carroll.

ALTHOUGH THERE is plenty of good material on the team, a heavy practice schedule has been set by Coach Moffett to trim the potential backfield into shape.

Out for backfield duties will be Jim Hodges, who is the best all-around player, plus Jack Jackson, Bill Nua, who is scheduled to handle the passing attack, Steve Savage, Ron Mitchell, Tom Jamis, John Fields, and Larry Myrick.

THE WILDCATS will kick off their nine-game schedule with four non-league games against Big Bear High School (Sept. 23), Elsinore N & M (Oct. 2), Needles High School (Oct. 9), and Elsinore High School (Oct. 16).

The league games to be played will include: Coachella, Oct. 23; at Banning, Oct. 30; Indio, Nov. 6; Yucaipa, Nov. 13; and at Palm Springs, Nov. 20.

TODAY'S SPORTS PARADE

Grid Coaches Already Moaning

By OSCAR FRALEY

NEW YORK, UPI — There is something humorous, on the surface, when the nation's football coaches take their seats at the wailing wall even before the season opens.

Like in the case of Ralph Jordan of Auburn, whose teams haven't tasted defeat in two years.

"I DOUBT SERIOUSLY," he says, "if we will be much improved over the past two years."

Funny? Not at all. Nor is it to such as Iowa's Forest Evashevski, whose team last year copped the Big Ten and the Rose Bowl, when he says this time out they will be "lucky" to win half their games.

For in coaching, nothing matters as little as the games which were won last year.

JOE STYDAHAR FOUND out in 1952, one year after winning the National Football League title. He dropped three exhibition games and the season opener — and was canned.

When they wave that pre-season crying towel it is known in the trade as preparing the "alumni alibi." It has a two-fold purpose. If the coach, after much moaning, comes up with a winner he is accepted as a genius. If he has a losing season, the fans have been pre-warned and the howls of the alumni wolves aren't quite so raucous.

FOR FOOTBALL COACHING is a tremendously demanding business.

WEINSTEIN IS ENTRANT IN SAN DIEGO FISH DERBY

Jay Weinstein, owner of Bonair Village, has qualified as one of 25,000 contestants in the annual San Diego Yellowtail Derby. Weinstein caught a 23-pound, 10-ounce yellowtail on a recent fishing trip along the Southern California coast.

The top one hundred fishermen with the largest catches are honored by the Derby committee.

It is not uncommon for a losing coach to be hanged in effigy and for his entire family to be hounded and insulted. Being summarily fired is the least of his torment.

Frankie Albert summed it up best when he resigned last December as coach of the San Francisco Forty-Niners. Albert withstood the physical and emotional strain but "couldn't stand it when the fans started picking on my family."

FOOTBALL COACHES, on the whole, make more stops than ball players. One such was Wes Fesler, who had been an outstanding athlete at Ohio State and coached at Connecticut Wesleyan, Harvard, Princeton and Pitt before being handed the head coaching reins at his alma mater.

Fesler lasted four years. He led the Buckeyes to the Big Ten crown in 1950 and on to Rose Bowl triumph. But the alumni really bounced him against the wall a year later when he won "only" six of nine games. Fesler resigned on the grounds that "my health won't stand the strain of trying to win every game."

DALE HALL, TAKING over an Army team ranked third nationally last year and rated even stronger this season, faces his debut with cautious optimism. He explains that "circumstances change the results of games and campaigns."

That's soldier talk but any football coach will tell you that he's always under fire — and even the Roman Colosseum had nothing on this.

Sahara Pro-Am To Attract Large Field in October

LAS VEGAS, NEV. — Plans for the second annual Sahara Pro-Am Invitational Golf tournament were finalized here today by officials of the conducting Las Vegas Golf Association and the sponsoring Hotel Sahara.

Scheduled for play over the Municipal course Oct. 27-29, the Sahara Pro-Am will offer $7500 in cash and merchandise awards, with a minimum of $1,000 for the top professional in the 54-hole event.

CASH AWARDS set for division among the pay boys will total $5,900, while the amateurs will swing for $1,600 in merchandise certificates during the fall links classic.

Many of the nation's leading circuit riders are expected to be among the 40 pros heading toward, although the final field will not be selected until after the Hesperia open, in which the top 10 will qualify for the Sahara event.

AMATEURS PLAYING in the celebrity tournament will include 40 Las Vegas golfers, plus 80 swingers invited from outside the state all bearing handicaps of 15 or less.

While play is scheduled to begin Oct. 27, practice rounds will be played over the Municipal course on the 26th, with preliminary events climaxing with a Calcutta dinner at Hotel Sahara that night.

Rams Sell Beams To Pittsburgh Club

LOS ANGELES UPI — The Los Angeles Rams sold tackle Byron Beams Tuesday night to the Pittsburgh Steelers National Football League club.

Beams, a former Notre Dame player, was placed on a waiver Tuesday, but when the San Francisco Forty Niners tried to claim him the Rams sold him to the eastern team.

Miteff and Hunter In Substitute Bout

SYRACUSE, N. Y. — UPI — Heavyweight contender Alex Miteff of Argentina will meet Billy Hunter of Detroit in a nationally televised 10-round bout at the Syracuse Auditorium, Sept. 25.

The match replaces a scheduled heavyweight fight between Charlie Powell and Mike DeJohn that was postponed because Powell is suffering from a virus.

Ycaza Grounded for 10 Days in New York

NEW YORK UPI — Jockey Manuel Ycaza was handed a 10-day suspension Tuesday by Aqueduct Track stewards for rough riding during the eighth race of Monday's opening program. Ycaza's suspension begins Thursday and extends through Saturday, Sept. 26.

PALM DESERT'S EDITH EDDY WARD, above, tells her pet French poodle all about the upset victory she scored at the annual Fall golf tournament sponsored by the Lazy H Sky Ranch, Pauma Valley. Participating in her very first tournament competition, Miss Ward fired a sizzling 52 on two 9-hole rounds at the par 54 course. It's one of the 3-par courses that have achieved such popularity lately. Miss Ward, early pioneer Palm Desert real estate broker and socialite, became a golfer only recently. (Gayle Studio Photo).

Dr. Cary Middlecoff, the tall, easy-going professional who came up through the amateur golf circuit to hit the professional level with the greatest impact of any gofer to date, has been named club professional at La Quinta Golf Course, it was learned here today.

Dr. Middlecoff, who this year was named to the U.S. Ryder Cup team, will probably take over duties at the club about Nov. 16, if further negotiations can clear his contract at the Diplomat Country Club in Hollywood, Fla.

ONE SOURCE, close to the hotel and country club, predicted today that there was little doubt that Middlecoff would accept the position, even though all negotiations have not been completed.

His appointment as club professional is happy news to at least one member of the Board of Directors at La Quinta Hotel, Ed Crowley, who owns the Balboa Bry Club and is general manager of the Sheraton Hotel in Los Angeles, who is a close personal friend of Middlecoff.

DR. MIDDLECOFF and Crowley were team mates in 1956 when the pair won the famed Bing Crosby (Clambake) Tournament at Pebble Beach, and the following year the same two came in second.

Middlecoff's father, himself a dentist, always wanted his son to follow in his footsteps and sent him to Dental school "to learn the business." But Cary became more interested in a game called golf, and in a junior tournament at the age of 12 took first place.

FOR TEN YEARS he played amateur golf, taking some of the biggest tournaments in the country, including the North and South Open at Pinehurst in 1945.

In 1947 he turned professional, and in his first year had winnings of $6,119 and was twenty-second on the list of professional golfers. The tall, thin faced, 6 foot, 2 inch, 180 pound Tennessean started up the ladder, never to drop below the top ten in golfdom, and from 1953 served on the PGA Tournament Committee, and is a member of the Advisory staff of Wilson Sporting Goods.

HIS BEST YEAR in golf was 1952, when Middlecoff won the Motor City Open, El Paso Open, St. Paul Open, Kansas City Open; came in second in the Palm Beach Open and World Championship Tournament; and placed third in the Inverness, at Toledo, Ohio.

He played as a member of the Ryder Cup Team in 1953, 1955, and is a member this year.

Middlecoff, who is now 38 years old, started on the amateur circuit at 16, and turned professional at 26. During the past five years as a pro, he has averaged $17,525.33 per year, and has authored one book, "The Golf Doctor."

La Quinta Golf Club also considered other top professional golfers for the professional position, including Jimmy Demaret, who is reported to have turned down the position.

CLAY, BOWDRY TO MEET
PHILADELPHIA — UPD — Promoter Herman Taylor announced Tuesday that Von Clay, unbeaten Philadelphia light heavyweight, will meet Jerse Bowdry of St. Louis here Oct. 9 in a nationally televised 10-round bout.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (UPD) — Charlie Coe, Bill Hyndman and some of the older golfing gaffers have been doing right well in the National Amateur golf championship thus far, but the real test for creaking bones begins today.

The grind steps up to two rounds a day on the mile-high, 7,010-yard Broadmoor Club course.

Dee Replogle, an unheralded Oklahoma oilman, aged 40, eliminated Deane Beman, the 21-year-old Walker Cupper and British Amateur champion who had been rated a threat to Coe's crown, 4 to 3.

Three other members of the Walker Cup "old guard" — Harvie Ward, 33; Dr. Frank Bud Taylor, 42, and Billy Joe Patton, 37, also reached the third round.

HOLLYWOOD (UPD) — Matchmaker Jackie Leonard today threatened to sue if he was thrown out of Legion Stadium for non-payment of rent.

But Post 43 Chairman Eddie Underwood firmly declared: "Leonard has to be out by Friday. We won't take the rent from him now even if he wanted to pay. He broke the contract and we don't want any part of Mr. Leonard."

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Willie Besmanoff, a native of Germany who now fights out of Milwaukee, muscles in on some of the Braves' headlines tonight when he tangles with favored Eddie Machen in a 10-round nationally televised bout.

Machen, who has transferred his allegiance from San Francisco to Portland, is going after his sixth straight win in a comeback campaign which he launched this year after being flattened in the opening round last September by Ingemar Johansson.

Eddie is ranked fourth in the latest Ring Magazine listing.

"A win over Machen could mean a shot at the title," manager Eddie Metrie has said. And he claims that a group in Milwaukee "will beat any offer from anywhere" for a world title bout between Johansson and Esmanoff.

LAUREL, Md. — (UPD) — Kuripero, a Japanese horse, will run in the $100,000 Washington, D. C. International and will leave Tokyo for the Nov. 11 race at Laurel Race Course on Oct. 30.

Tadamasa Sakai, president of the Japan Racing Assn., notified Laurel officials that Japan's first starter in the mile and one-half will be flown to Seattle. There the four-year-old will go through quarantine. He then will be flown to Baltimore by domestic cargo carrier.

Get the champagne ready, Looie!
The White Sox may be asking you to pop the cork this weekend.

And by that time, the Giants should let you know definitely one way or the other.

For the White Sox, it's virtually over but the gala formality of celebrating their first pennant clinching in 40 years. Their "magic number" now is down to four and for those whose mathematics may be a bit rusty, it simply means the Sox can wrap up the whole business by Friday night.

THAT WAS MADE possible when Cleveland fell 5½ games behind Tuesday night by losing to Boston, 1-0, after the White Sox had won a 4-3 thriller from the Yankees.

The Giants are in good shape too, although not quite in the commanding position the White Sox are. San Francisco is two games in front of both Milwaukee and Los Angeles, and the Giants meet the Braves in a two-game series at home starting today, then play host to the Dodgers in a three-game set.

EVERYTHING worked out perfectly for the Giants Tuesday. They crushed the Reds, 13-6, while the Dodgers beat the Braves, 8-7, in 10 innings.

The Giants hammered out 13 hits Tuesday in routing the Reds. They shelled rookie Jay Hook with a five-run burst in the first inning.

Reliever Don McMahon walked in the winning run in the 10th inning to enable the Dodgers to climb back into a second-place tie with the Braves.

ALTHOUGH THE Dodgers came up with two runs in the bottom of the 10th to win, Manager Fred Haney played the game under protest because first baseman Joe Adcock's fifth inning hit into

LOS ANGELES (UPD) — Perry T. Jones, U. S. Davis Cup team captain, predicts a tennis stadium will be built here within two years.

"I am sure we could have had the national championships here this year if we had a big enough place to play," said Jones Tuesday on his return from Forest Hills, N. Y.

Jones said there was an immediate need for a stadium seating 7,500 to 10,000 persons with 20 courts, but he envisioned a stadium that would seat 40,000 persons and have 40 outside courts.

"Because of the public service aspect, I think the stadium with related facilities will have to be a civic project in which local government would join with business and labor in putting it through," said Jones. "Certainly I think a site can and should be provided by either the city or county."

Western Air Lines today announced a new flight credit policy honoring of Diners' Club and Hilton Carte Blanche credit cards. Arthur P. Kelly, vice president-sales for Western, said that "there is only one basic reason why Western has become the first major airline to honor these widely known credit cards. We simply want to make it easier and more convenient for people to do business with us."

DELUXE CLEANERS OPENS IN VILLAGE

Palm Springs' newest laundry—De Luxe Cleaners and Laundry—opened its doors at 119 North Indian Avenue this week.

Owner-operator of the new laundry-cleaning plant is Jack Ehrlich, formerly in the San Francisco music business who "came out of retirement" to open the new shop.

EHRLICH TODAY said the plush new laundry office—it features a real waterfall in the customer section—is the forerunner of a new desert area laundry-cleaning chain.

"Starting here in Palm Springs, we expect to open 10 or 12 more new stores across the desert area," Ehrlich reported. The new Village shop, and the stores which will follow later, are serviced by "the largest cleaning plant west of Chicago," Ehrlich said.

HE SAID THE plant is able to handle any cleaning job "from a pair of trousers to several hundred pairs of drapes" from any one customer.

The plant recently received a contract to clean all the drapes of schools in the San Diego School District, he explained.

Ehrlich said his cleaners are all specialists in their work.

"They call the cleaning men 'professors' at the plant," he said. "Everyone is a specialist in his own field."

DELUXE LAUNDRY and Cleaners also guarantees to clean any garment or goods, Ehrlich added. The company uses a cleaning solvent which is approved for federal government cleaning work and which, unlike some other cleaning formulas, "doesn't take the life out of your clothes."

Ehrlich said many cleaning fluids remove oil from woolen goods and thereby reduce the durability of the fabrics.

"But we use a cleaning solvent which has an oily base," he noted. "It actually prolongs the life of your clothes."

LOS ANGELES — (UPI) — The Discoverer V satellite will be visible to Southern Californians shortly after 7:20 p.m., Wednesday.

RECREATION COSTS 10 CENTS A PERSON

It cost the City of Palm Springs just a fraction more than 10 cents a head to entertain and instruct the 31,342 young and old citizens who turned out for summer activities programmed by the City Park and Recreation Department. That's a quick calculation based on figures released in the summer recreation report, covering the period from June 1 to Aug. 31 issued by Recreation Supt. Howard Haddock today.

$4,797 for salaries and took in $1,879 in entrance fees for a list of summer recreation activities ranging from arts and crafts school to band instruction and sports.

Which, in net cost (not counting normal maintenance), breaks down to a shade over 10 cents per capita for the grand total of 31,342 youngsters and adults registered at the various recreation department activities.

For the statisticians, Haddock's itemized report shows that fees were taken in for softball, tap, ballet and acrobatic dancing classes; the swimming pool, arts and crafts, junior and adult square dancing, summer band instruction, special events and tennis court lights.

SALARIES WERE paid for teachers and instructors of all types, umpires, swimming pool help and recreation assistants.

Attendance tables show that the swimming pool attracted 3,809 customers; the arts and crafts program, 2,653; bridge lessons, 130; tap, ballet and acrobatic classes, 300; square dancing, 1,300 and summer band instruction, 200.

ON THE LIST OF special programs, the Fourth of July fireworks show brought out an estimated 5,000 spectators; the swim carnival, 200; Los Angeles Dodger Rookie ball game 200, and Tamarisk Park tennis courts attracted 1,300 sportmen and women—an average of 25 per day, Haddock reported.

ALL TOLD, THE city paid out

JUNE BRENTON of Rancho Mirage this week became the bride of Sam Lloyd Mullen of Odessa, Texas and the young couple will live in Rancho Mirage until he resumes his medical studies. (Sun Photo).

June Brenton Is Bride of Sam Lloyd Mullen of Texas

June Patricia Brenton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brenton of Rancho Mirage, and Sam Lloyd Mullen of Odessa, Texas, were married Monday evening. The informal ceremony, which took place in the presence of the immediate family, was performed by Judge Eugene Theriault at his home on Santa Catalina.

The two young people had just recently returned from Yellowstone Park where both had been working at Canyon Village this summer. They were there during the earthquake and were stringing popcorn for the annual Christmas in July party, when the quake came, shaking the building and rocking the chandelier. It was the first experience with an earthquake and they thought it might be Old Faithful erupting.

For the wedding the bride carried white orchids and wore a pleated white gown with gold accessories, a duplicate of one which had brought her other compliments at a Sinatra party. Brenton is a general contractor who did extensive enlarging on the Sinatra home at Tamarisk.

The bridegroom's mother Mrs. Mary Mullen and his brother John were here from Odessa, Texas for the wedding and were in the party that adjourned to the Howard Manor for the wedding dinner.

The newly weds will live in Rancho Mirage until the first of the year when the groom will resume his medical studies at West Texas University at El Paso.

Petersons Host Dinner Party Honoring Karahadians

A dinner party with a touch of Mexican atmosphere honored newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Karahadian, when Mr. and Mrs. Austin "Pete" Peterson entertained at their home on Navajo Drive Saturday evening.

The Karahadians, who were married two months ago in Kansas City, met when she was spending the winter here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hanson of Kansas City who have a winter home out at Tamarisk. The bridegroom's parents also have a home at Tamarisk.

Among the guests were Messrs. and Mmes. Ray Karahadian, Donald Wood, Ray Corliss, Joe Wood, Betty McGee and Ed Dillon.

The young couple are moving into a new home in Palm Desert and he is associated with his father in the grape growing business in the Coachella Valley.

Tycoons by the ton . . . would have been an apt description for Men's Week at Golden Door . . . except that some of them were only exhausted executives who didn't need to lose weight . . . They were 15 men of backgrounds as varied as the cars in the parking lot . . . which ranged from Thunderbird, Cadillac and Imperial to a $24,000 Rolls Royce . . . There was Billy Malouf (everyone knows Billy . . . Mode O'Day mogul) . . . Sam Banowitz who is opening the new Spa on Indian Avenue this fall . . . Desert Sun cartoonist-George Shaw . . . Lewis Kingsley . . . and Larry Rich who recently sold his house on Patencio . . .

Once on the other side of the Golden Door . . . you couldn't tell the Thunderbird driver from the Rolls Royce owner . . . for all were wearing identical gray sweat shirts . . . the uniform of the day. There were several portly profiles in the crowd . . . with the combined tonnage estimated at 2,640 pounds with a collective 543 inches of waistline . . . Both the pounds and inches had melted away considerably before they checked out . . . with Shaw (who's skinnier than anyone except Sinatra) losing an improbable eight pounds . . .

Some attended this carrot-juice and steam-room seminar just to relax and recharge their physical and emotional selves . . . like Aldous "Bright New World" Huxley . . . Lewis Kingsley . . . San Diego columnist Neil Morgan . . . and health faddist Bob Cummings . . .

Following the basic routine . . . of supervised activity, exercise, organically grown food, massage and rest . . . set for the women who frequent the spa the other weeks of the year . . . the men quickly proved that they too are interested in well being . . . Dr. Anne-Marie Bennstrom . . . physical therapist, Swedish gymnast and a blonde bombshell of health and energy . . . said the men attacked the program with more vigor and stayed with it more completely . . . even turning down time off the grounds . . . What she didn't tell them was that they were like a bunch of little boys turned loose in a modern gymnasium with all those fascinating machines . . . that bruise and beautify . . .

They had hours in the beauty parlor too . . . and it was pretty funny one day when Convair executive Joe Terramagra had to leave his position as guardian of the goal in a fast game of water polo . . . to report for a facial . . . They liked it so well . . . they went into committee and organized themselves as a Golden Horde . . . just for the purpose of making sure they get time for another saccharine safari . . . and they have already signed up for the first two weeks in March . . . Fifteen members and 15 accommodations . . . and that makes this Golden Horde a pretty exclusive group . . . Healthy, too.

ing friends and comparing the Riviera to Waikiki . . .

Waltah said this trip is "just for fun" . . . but you just know he and Gretchen both will be appraising continental sportswear . . . since they are planning a kind of "around the world sportswear" shop in the new Saks-Palm Springs building . . .

Actor Ricardo Montalban had never swung a golf club . . . but fell an easy victim to the golfing bug . . . when he visited Bermuda Dunes over the weekend . . . On the sideline encouraging him were his pretty wife Georgiana (sister of Loretta Young) and her mother Mrs. Gladys Belzer . . . a Bermuda Dunes home owner.

DECORATIVE as well as tantalizingly edible is this fresh pineapple that is on display in the Village Flower Shop in The Center. Louise and Tommy Mochizuki got the pineapple from a friend Teraoka who grew it in his hothouse in Venice, California. Three years ago Teraoka bought six pineapples in a market; sliced off the tops; and planted them. All of the plants flourished. (Desert Sun Photo).

Women Curious About Mrs. K

By COLETTE BLACKMOORE
United Press International

WASHINGTON, (UP) — Mrs. Nikita Khrushchev is on the threshold of the greatest adventure of her life.

To some, such adventure comes at 20 or in middle age. But to Mrs. Khrushchev, it has come in the twilight years.

At 60, nothing that she has done so far and little that she might possibly do in the future can eclipse the importance of her first visit to the United States.

It isn't that Russia's first lady has led a dull existence or that coming to America is the most significant thing that any foreigner can do.

It is simply that Nikita Khrushchev has put this visit on such a high pedestal that some of the responsibility for its success or failure is bound to be shared by his wife.

If the Soviet premier had wanted to make this primarily a business trip, he would have come to America alone. Instead, he is making a tremendous gesture in international public relations—bringing almost his entire family and a son-in-law to boot.

He is in effect saying, "See what a family man I am, and see how wonderful this typical Soviet family is."

Nina Khrushchev will be the first Russian woman that most Americans have ever observed closely.

But no Soviet woman has ever projected herself on to the American national scene like Mrs. Khrushchev will do for 13 days.

For millions of U.S. TV viewers, Nina Petrovna and her two stepdaughters, Yulia and Rada, will represent Soviet womanhood — what they look like, how they think and how they conduct themselves.

Wild West Atmosphere at Party

A wild west atmosphere invaded the Verbena Drive home of the Don Wexlers Saturday when their young son, Glen, celebrated his fourth birthday. Glen who was four on Tuesday the 15th, celebrated a little ahead of time because of school opening.

Pictures of cowboys, horses, and Indians decorated the party area and the little guests played games including pin-the-tail-on-the-horse (NOT donkey, as Glen prefers horses) and sang a number of western songs.

The birthday cake was decorated with miniature cowboys and Indians and, while Glen cut the cake and blew out the candles, the birthday song was sung by the guests.

Among those wishing Glen "Happy Birthday" were Terri and Greg Heathman, Mark Wasserman, Larry Pitt, Lynnie Hamilton, Steve Chapman, Elaine Bock, Doug and Steve Miller, Michelle Ranes and Glen's brother, Gary.

When Donivee Ellison boards the plane at International Airport Friday to fly to St. Louis, where she is enrolled in Principia College, she will be wearing a Palm Springs hat a gift of the Chamber of Commerce and friends who know that wherever this attractive Palm Springs High School Alumna goes she will be an ambassador for Palm Springs.

Donivee is the girl who graduated with honors last June and will be remembered as the originator of the Student Ambassador idea and one of the first student Ambassadors to make the trip to Washington, D. C.

Because of her friends who contribute each year to a Principia College, have established a Palm Springs fund and a grant has been made in her name for use during her four years there. After that it will be available for another student.

This summer Donivee has been working at the Bank of America to earn additional money for her college course.

Ambitious to go into the field of foreign relations, she selected Principia which has a School of Nations and a School of Government on its campus and sponsors students from other nations. She will, of course, major in political science and foreign languages.

KENNEDY INVITE WAS 'BAD IDEA'

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Roger Kent, state vice chairman of the Democratic Party, said today he thinks it was a "bad idea" to invite Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.) to speak before a party gathering in Los Angeles.

Kent said the "understanding" among party leaders in California was that candidates for presidential nomination would not be invited to address major party dinners.

"OUR FEELING is that you can't ask them all, and if you invite one it's not fair to the others," he said.

Kennedy has been invited to speak at a $100 a plate Jefferson-Jackson Dinner in Los Angeles.

Meanwhile, State Democratic Chairman William A. Munnell and Gov. Edmund G. Brown were conferring in Sacramento today, and it was believed that the topic of the dinner would come up.

MUNNELL, who was to preside at the dinner has not agreed to do so as yet.

Brown is regarded as a "favorite son" candidate for the Democratic nomination.

State to Eye Unification of 55 Districts

State Education Board Will Meet In Santa Barbara

SACRAMENTO—Plans to merge 55 school districts into 10 unified districts will come before the State Board of Education when it meets in Santa Barbara Thursday and Friday.

Also on the agenda of the 10-member board will be a proposal to raise state college admission standards for transfer students from other colleges, and plans to open the 13th state college in September, 1960.

UP FOR BOARD approval are proposals for local elections on unifying school districts in many parts of the state. Included are two Los Angeles and Sacramento County proposals on which the board, after hearing protests at its July 10 meeting, refused to act prior to further study.

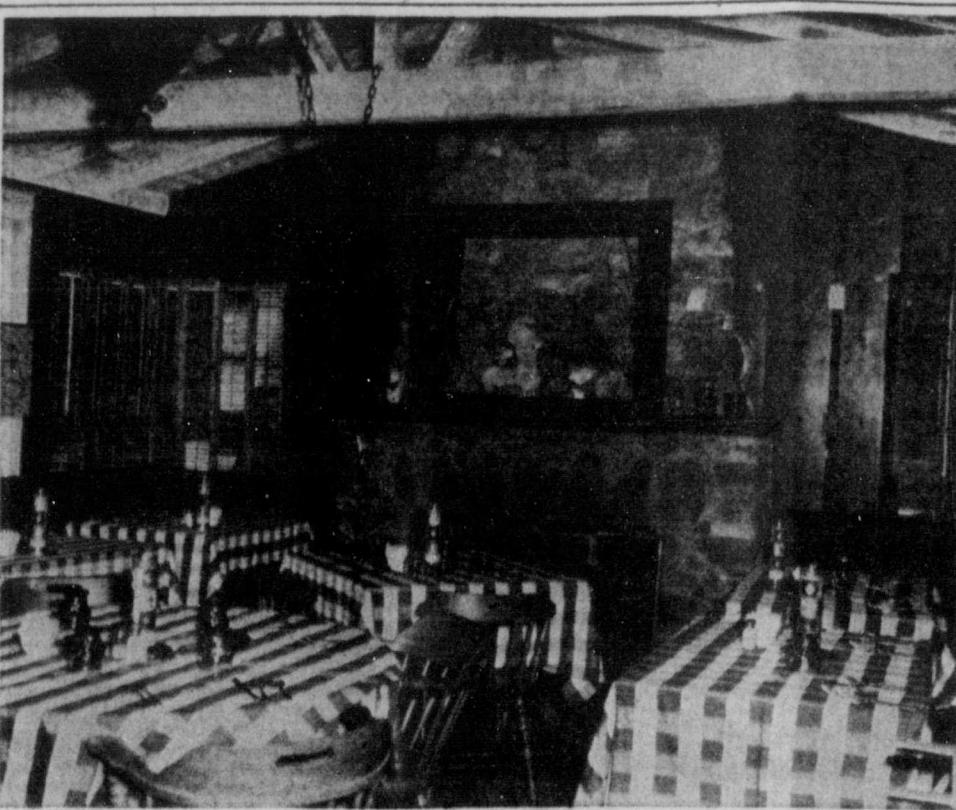

Unification brings both elementary and high schools under a single local school board and is strongly supported by the State Board as a method of consolidating California's more than 1800 school districts.

PROPOSED HIGHER state college admission standards will affect only students who did not have the B-minus high school grade average necessary to enter state college. It will require that they finish two years college work with a C average or nearly a year's work with a B average before transferring to a state college.

Present entry standards vary considerably depending on institutions from which students transfer, according to State Department of Education officials.

ALSO LIKELY TO eventually affect admission standards is a college entry test, whose trial use is proposed for several state colleges. The four-hour tests will first be given early next year to high school seniors planning to enter state colleges if the trial is approved by the board.

The board also will be asked to open planning a September, 1960, opening for the Stanislaus County State College. As proposed, the college will offer junior, senior and graduate education and business courses in rented quarters to some 300 students.

THOUSAND PALMS

At home again in their Thousand Palms home are Mr. and Mrs. Leslie C. Thomas, who have spent most of the summer months away.

Highlight of their summer this year (last year they toured Europe) was a motor trip of several weeks through the beauties and wonders of the Canadian Rockies in British Columbia — Lake Louise, Banff, Vancouver, Victoria etc. In Victoria a "thrill of a lifetime" for many was theirs when they saw Queen Elizabeth and Prince Phillip of Great Britain as the Queen's party came from the airport on her visit to that city. In Seattle, Washington, the Thomases enjoyed a visit with Mrs. Grace DeVoe, a cousin of Mrs. Thomas. Having been very close friends throughout their childhood, the two ladies had not seen each other since then, so it was a real reunion.

Enroute to and from their Canadian Rockies vacation, the Thomases, of course, spent as much time as possible visiting in the Pebble Beach home of their youngest daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Scheid, on the Monterey Peninsula. Always a highlight of visits in the Scheid home is the time spent with the grandchildren, Greg, Dana, Joshlyn and Harry, Jr.

Side trips of the Thomases since their return from the north lands have taken them to the beach for two weeks at Dana Point, and for another two weeks at the San Juan Capistrano Beach Club.

Also "at home" from an interesting four week motor tour through six western national parks and monuments are Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Bovee, and their daughter, Miss Patricia Dyal. High points of their trip included a visit with friends in Santa Fe, New Mexico; a cable car journey up Pike's Peak in Colorado; and Dude Ranch experiences in the Never Summer Range of the Rocky Mountains and at Jackson Hole in Wyoming. The party also toured Yellowstone National Park a week before the disaster there, and they enjoyed the Salt Lake City, Utah, area. Bryce and Zion National Parks, Cedar Breaks National Monument, and both the North and South Rim of the Grand Canyon were also among the highlights of their excursion. They report that they were delighted with the daily rain showers and the cool temperatures they enjoyed during most of the trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Bovee are spending the remainder of the summer season at their cabin at Thomas Mountain. Miss Dyal has remained at her home in Thousand Palms.

On Money Claims

Person's Estate Given Protection

By STATE BAR ASSN.
The law won't allow you to present certain testimony in a law suit against a deceased person's estate. If you make a claim for money against it, you can't testify about what supposedly happened before the man died. He can't defend his own claim.

In old England, where the rule started, it was used to stop lying or perjury where one of the parties to a business deal was dead and could not, therefore, answer complaints against himself.

ENGLAND ABOLISHED the rule many years ago. But not California.

The rule applies not only to contract claims but to personal injury claims against the estate and other sorts of suits for money.

The rule doesn't apply in trying to prove that a trust exists, to redeem a mortgage, or to get back real property. These are not money claims.

THE DEAD PERSON'S executor may waive the rule. He can, for example, call the claimant to the stand and ask him questions. Or if the testimony comes in and the executor does not object, the court will regard the rule as waived.

Thus, one claimant sued a widow and her husband's estate. He said they had promised to pay for some home furnishings. Since the widow was alive, she could testify, which helped to prove the couple's indebtedness. The dead man's evidence rule did not apply.

Police Seek Lennox Pair In Slayings

Couple Wanted
For Questioning
In Desert Murders

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Police are seeking a Lennox couple, friends of the man and woman found slain in the desert near Victorville, who disappeared from their home last Friday.

An all-points bulletin was issued Monday for Clifford Red, 30, paroled forger and car thief, and his wife, Sharon, 23.

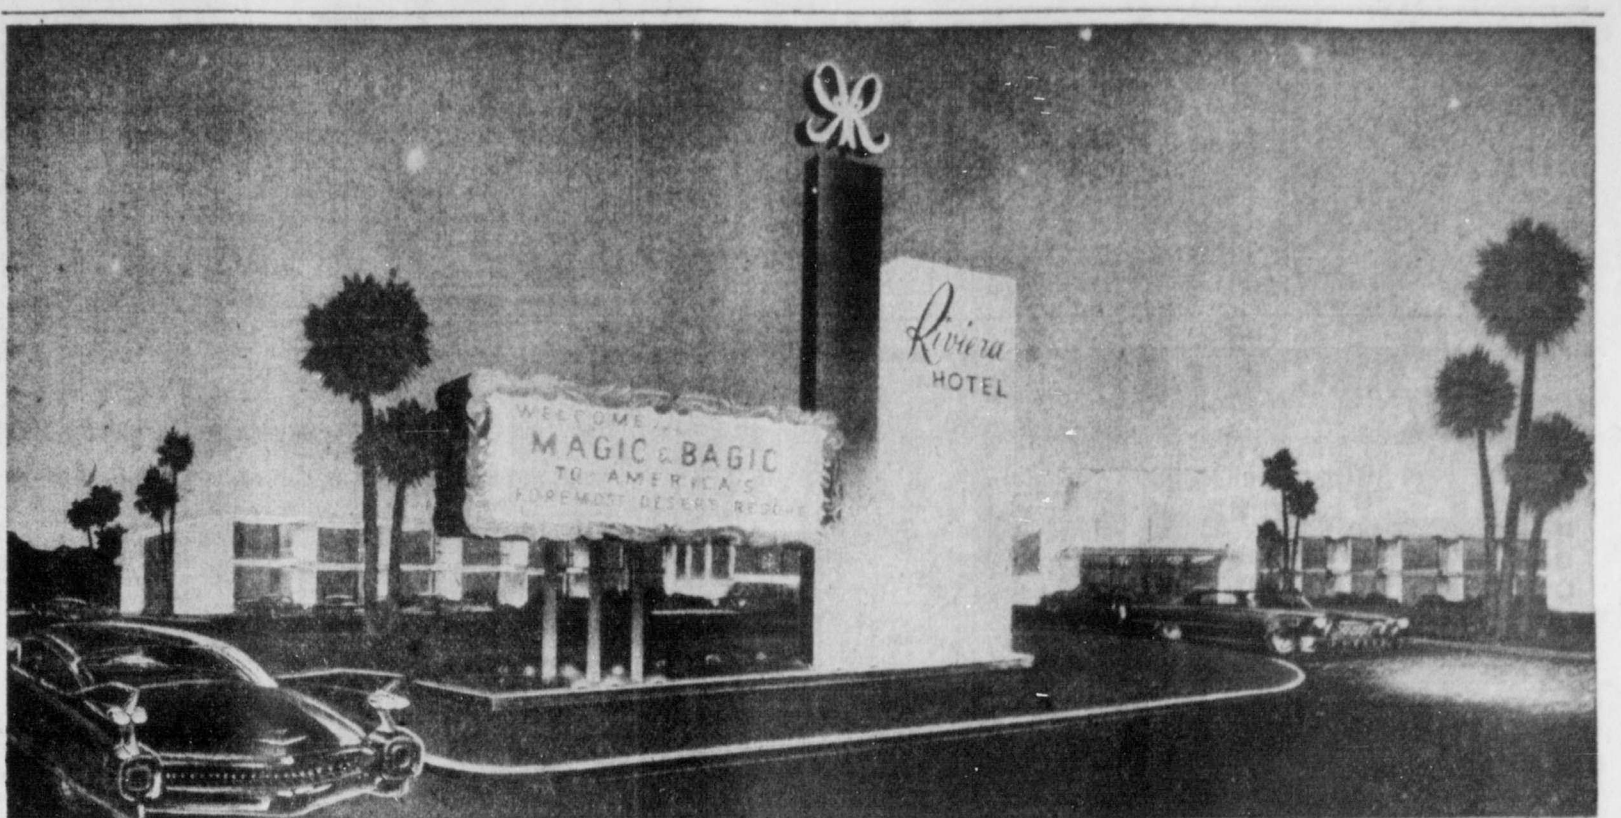

Detectives said the slain man, Richard Nowline, 28, had visited the Red home only 18 hours before he was killed.

They said Nowline and his girl friend, Patricia Hurley Skene, 27, lived with the Reds but moved five days before the murder.

Ex-convict Edin L. Hinds, 34, and Laverne F. Pleaugh, 28, were held on suspicion of killing the pair, whose bodies were found on the desert a week ago.

Monitors Ask Hoffa Ouster

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Court-appointed monitors have asked a federal court to oust James R. Hoffa as president of the Teamsters Union, charging that he mis-handled $675,000 in union funds.

PALM SPRINGS CITY COUNCIL this week approved an application by the new Palm Springs Riviera for the erection of a lighted post and two-way sign at the entrance of the new hotel. The first such edifice of its kind in the desert area, the sign will mark the change of the sign ordinance laws, which normally would not allow such construction. The ordinance does allow the developer to put up five or six individual signs. Builder-owner Irwin Schuman, and Mark Schuman had the sign specially designed to expound the full beauty of the development. The sign is two sided and can be read from either direction on Indian Avenue. The white sign is lit from the inside just enough to cause a glow—but not a glare. The double 'R' on the top pylon is the crest of the new resort hotel.

Underground Utilities Should Be Made Easily Available and Encouraged

While the day may well come when it will be possible to supply electricity and telephone service to most users by direct aerial transmission without the necessity of stringing lines to carry the current to each individual connection, it appears that such a gladsome improvement is yet many years away from actual adoption by the electric and communication industries.

In the meantime the next best thing from the public viewpoint is the laying of all such wires and cables underground. This latter method has many undeniable advantages and benefits as compared to the old style of overhead lines and pole system and is being increasingly employed in many parts of the United States, particularly in new residential developments and heavily congested metropolitan commercial areas.

While most costly than above surface lines, the underground circuits have so many other advantages in addition to eliminating the unsightly forest and web of poles and wires that property owners generally are happy in most instances to help defray the extra cost whenever offered an opportunity.

Especially has this been true in Palm Springs and the surrounding parts of the desert where a great deal of attention and effort has been expended in making both home and business sections appealingly attractive in architecture and landscaping to conform with and further enhance the natural beauty of the marvelous scenic view in every direction.

A drive through any one of the number of local neighborhoods enjoying complete underground utility services instantly impresses the viewer with the great improvement and extra value derived by all property owners from the unobstructed and unspoiled desert view.

Inasmuch as a good start has already been made in this all important essential to preserving the natural beauty and charm which has attracted so many people to this particular part of the desert, it is the more desirable and vital that the community continue to encourage and promote placing of utility service underground at every opportunity, both in new development and replacement of old overhead pole lines.

In endeavoring to carry out the wishes of the public in protecting Palm Springs from unnecessary unsightliness and preserving the pattern of attractiveness which has won such a wide and favorable reputation for this city, the City Council is performing one of its most important functions for the community.

It is deserving of, and should receive, full cooperation from all utility companies and builders in every instance where underground conduits are desired. Certainly there should not be the slightest inclination of the part of either group involved to discourage or retard the installation of all such facilities underground.

The City will be doing an excellent service for everyone by making a thorough study of the situation, including ascertainment of what might be expected as reasonable costs to be charged for underground services to each area, and inform the public so that any desiring to do so may readily obtain and enjoy these added benefits.

Being so much more desirable, underground utilities should be made as easily available as possible. In the end it is the public who pays. It is rightfully the people's choice to avoid or eliminate overhead lines and poles whenever and wherever desired.

Hubert Humphrey's America

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Senator Hubert Horatio Humphrey, Democratic aspirant for the presidency, gave us a hint last Labor Day of the kind of America his Administration might produce. In arguing before the Senate for a food stamp (free lunch) plan, Humphrey pictured with approval a United States where:

... a person ... can walk into a grocery store ... and use food stamps (free lunch certificates) just as he would use currency in order to buy food.

WHILE THE SENATOR was speaking in favor of Federal aid, the nation was having its "circus" in the original Roman sense of the term. While no Christians, I think, were thrown to the lions, there was a gory race of "insolent chariots" over the Federalized highways while about 300 Americans were killed.

Offered as an amendment to another bill, the Humphrey free food measure passed by a minority vote of the Senate. Only 44 members were for it, 34 against it, 18 not voting. If the plan sneaks past the President and becomes law, the Secretary of Agriculture will be "directed" to put out an issue of stamps which will purchase not less than $15 million worth of food from Federal warehouses.

THIS SUM, SAYS Humphrey, is only "a modest trial run." Once the road to the hand-out house has been paved and Americans have been taught how to rely for the necessities of life upon their Government, then our whole American way will have changed.

Beginning with food and extending to other creature comforts, there will be no difference between money that is earned and stamps that are obtained for nothing. No distinction will be allowed (the Humphrey plan is insistent upon this) between a man who earns his bread and a man who begs for it.

AT ONE POINT of the debate the Federal Government was named, as the lawyers would say, in loco parentis, and vested with the authority to say how many calories its citizen-children should consume. Senator

Aiken did not reveal the source of his figures (but I'm sure he has them), when he declared that 26 million Americans have "inadequate diets" and that there ought to be a law to see that they have "enough to eat."

This is about as paternalistic as any Government can get. The principle would, of course, work in both directions. If any President through his Agriculture Secretary can decree how fat the population should be, another President can decree in favor of leanness.

LISTENING HOPEFULLY from the press gallery and reviewing the debate in the Congressional Record, I waited in vain for some Senator to attack the Humphrey plan for its un-Americanism. There were Senators who objected to the legislative language, to the amount of money, to the kinds of crops and to the limitations of time.

But nobody, so far as this reporter could detect, objected to the plan because it would make beggars of us all. It literally would give the Federal Government the alternatives to feed us or to starve us, the power of life or death over everybody who has to eat to stay alive.

SIGNIFICANTLY, while Humphrey was advancing a plan which would infantilize the American people and paternalize their Government, events outside the Capitol on Labor Day were ominously suggesting where he got his ideas. Last Tuesday's morning papers showed the country to be in an undisciplined mood which unhappily has become typical.

In addition to accidents of collided and overturned automobiles with their mangled inmates, there were crimes committed in sanguinary profusion by individuals and gangs, by men and women, by adults and children.

IF YOU DON'T care what happens to your country, you could agree with the general philosophy of the Humphrey plan. It says, in effect, that the American people are so far gone in madness and second childhood that they get enough to eat and that they get enough to eat and wear.

But if you do care what happens to the USA, you may feel that any political leader who encourages the regime of bread and circuses is doing us a deadly wrong. The crying need in America is not for food but discipline. It is not for equalization but for distinction.

ONE OF THE TEN Commandments tells us to "honor thy father and thy mother," which would solve nearly all the problems of youth. On the other hand, many philosophers have warned us against too much reliance on, too much obedience to, the State. If we need new laws they ought to strengthen the family and not the government.

With all these Presidential candidates around, when are we going to get some leadership—other than the wrong kind?

—Holmes Alexander

Quotes From the News

TURNBERRY, Scotland—Scottish golf professional Ian Marshbank issuing a judgment on President Eisenhower's golf after playing a round with him:

"I told the President that I thought he was not pivoting enough and he told me it was an old fault ... he is a good average player."

NEW YORK — Warden William Doherty of the New York City house of detention, on the wholesale arrests of New York juvenile delinquents:

"Right now we are bulging at the seams with 839 (boys). Forty more and we will be practically out of business."

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower, describing in a nation-wide radio-TV address his hopes for his forthcoming exchange of visits with Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev:

"It is my profound hope that some real progress will be forthcoming, even though no one would be so bold as to predict such an outcome."

This Side of The Sun

By Phat

Oh, the desert
Has its flora
And it also
Has its fauna
I think the first
Is hunkydora
But the latter
I doan wanna.

News stories perused over the weekend, as I caught up on my reading, prompted the above which sounds like something else did.

FIRST, there was that story about a skunk in a garbage can. Police had no difficulty finding the source of the disturbance.

Then there were two snake stories — both of them, happily, originating many miles from town.

On the sidewalk Friday morning, three or four grasshoppers were jumping around.

I TRUST THEY were just stragglers and not scouts for a main army.

Perhaps we'll have the sea-gulls again this year.

I think it was last year—maybe the year before—when we had an excess of grasshoppers and the gulls came to the desert which is miles from the sea and gorged themselves each morning.

ON TOP OF all that, I think—and I hope I'm wrong—that I saw a cricket Friday night. Just out of the corner of my eye while looking over a magazine which was a 1959 version of the Police Gazette, only more so.

By the time I was on my feet ready to arrange defensive measures whatever it was had disappeared under the door. Close scrutiny outside failed to confirm the suspicion.

THE SPARROWS are back on Indian Avenue again revealing how nature maintains its balance.

First the bugs come and bash out their brains against the bright street lights.

Then, in the pink of the dawn, the sparrows come and prowl under the lamps and have themselves a feast in the gutter.

THEIR EYES being bigger than their stomachs—as they used to tell us kids when we over-loaded—they gorge and become sluggish and can't hop or flutter out of the way of the automobiles which start rolling up Indian Avenue at sun-up.

Or they are so busy getting that one last helping of moth-on-the-pavement that they don't see the cars.

SO THE INSECT surplus is kept down by the sparrows just like the gulls take care of the grasshoppers.

And the motorists keep the supply of sparrows from getting out of hand.

Traffic does the same for the motorists.

I don't know who operates in the case of the gulls. Will have to ask Dr. C. E. Smith, Desert Museum director. He knows all of the answers when it comes to our Flora and Fauna.

STAN DELAPLANE'S Postcard

Since the President has asked everybody to be nice to Mr. K., let us start right here.

I invite Mr. K. to come over to my house. When I was in Moscow, I stood around the kitchen of the model house while Mr. K. yakked it up with Mr. Nixon.

Mr. K. said the model house was a fraud.

"HERE IN THE Soviet Union we build to last for our grandchildren," he said. "In America you build so you can sell the man a new house in 20 years."

Well, I would like Mr. Khrushchev to look at this scatter. Especially the financing. I do not know whether the house will last 20 years. But let me assure you the mortgage will.

IT IS ONE OF the finest plasters ever put together.

To show you HOW good this mortgage is, let me tell you that for the first year I threw money at it that did not even touch the mortgage itself. All it did was take care of the interest. I just held my own, you might say.

In Moscow, Mr. K. said that an ordinary worker probably could not afford such a home.

THIS IS TRUE and Mr. K. can come out to my house and see for himself. I cannot afford it. I have it but cannot afford it. I live beyond my means.

The way I manage this is very clever. I keep opening the end of the mortgage.

In fact, I am about to open the end of the mortgage again. Open it like a Christmas present. One thing I like about this mortgage is that its ends seem endless.

THE WAY YOU get a mortgage like this is so simple. I am surprised it has not occurred to Mr. K.

The first thing I did was make a down payment on a lot. Then I took the lot to the bank—I did not actually take it. But I showed them the papers. The bank then gave me this mortgage.

I AM SURE THIS mortgage will last for my grandchildren. I think it will last forever. Especially if my grandchildren keep opening the ends. Let a little air in once in awhile. That is good for a mortgage.

The bank gave me this mortgage. Then I built the house. All the time I was building it, the banker was out end prowl around. Fingering the blueprints and seeing that the builder put in enough of this and that.

In fact, this house is more my banker's idea than mine.

Take the downstairs powder room for example.

OUR DOWNSTAIRS powder room is just opposite the front door. It cost me a ruddy fortune!

"I do not want a powder room Banker," I said. "Not at these prices anyway. How about a nice rumpus room?"

Well, the Banker said no. Do you know why? He said a house had more resale value with a downstairs powder room than with a rumpus room.

"I HAVE YOU there, Banker," I cried. "I do not intend to resell this nest. I intend to live in it. And pass it along to my grandchildren."

"Why as to that," said the banker with a sly smile, "this depends on whim and fate and how well you keep up the old mortgage. For," he said, "if you fall one itsy-bitsy payment behind, we shall be forced to sell it. And the people we sell it to will probably want a downstairs powder room."

THAT IS THE way I got my house and it will probably be interesting to Mr. K. I suppose he will ask me: "Why don't you pay off the mortgage?"

I have an interesting answer for that. I think I HAVE paid off this mortgage — three or four times. It is that open end that I cannot seem to close up.

Star System Rough on Tykes

NEW YORK — The Hollywood TV and movie studios are cruel to the little guy, in the opinion of one of the big guys.

"In Hollywood, unless you're a star, you're a real nothing — and if you're a star, you're like God," says Edward Binns, star of CBS "Brenner," the only bigtime TV series now shooting here.

"But in N.Y. even the bit actor is treated with respect. He's called by name ... He's not 'Hey, you' or 'All right, you two guys.'"

"In Hollywood," says the six-foot Philadelphia-born Quaker who learned acting at the Cleveland Playhouse, then stopped a while to be an Air Force captain, "more respect is given to the size of the bankroll and the bust than to ability."

A friend recently told Binns: "You'll never be a really big star. You're honest and you're talented. Who can overcome those two handicaps?"

HOT FLASHES ...

Arnold Stang, recovering after emergency plastic surgery (following an auto crash), says, "Please tell my fans I'm as unattractive as ever." ... Socialite Natalie Trundy and wealthy Charles Hurshon planned to elope, but decided at the last moment to wait awhile ... Stripper Sherry Britton was signed by Jerry Lewis for a role — non-stripping — in his "Cinderella" Nancy Kovak, hostess on ABC-TV's "Beat the Clock," is a Wilson Girl nominee.

A lovemaking column for men — "Between Us Boys" — written by Dick Belmar of Greenville, S.C., told one old wolf to wine and dine the woman even though she was elderly. "You'll both adore dancing creak to creak." To a much younger reader, he said, "That gal sounds more like the kind you settle up with than settle down with."

MIKE CONNOLLY:

Cleopatra, Ruth in Doubt

HOLLYWOOD — Fox is having as much trouble casting a big star for "Cleopatra" as it is finding an unknown for "The Story of Ruth." For "Ruth," the studio has screen-tested 12 girls from all over the world, to $6,000 per test. The topper to date is a sexy Swedish sylph named Ulla Jacobsson.

As for the "Cleop" caper, the studio has received the following replies — Gina Lollobrigida: "I would like to play Queen Cleopatra if I had just played the Queen of Sheba in 'Solomon and Sheba.' Sorry," Susan Hayward: "Would if I were 10 years younger," Liz Taylor: "Can you afford my price of $1,000,000?" (Answer: No!). Audrey Hepburn: "I can't make a picture for Fox because I have done three loanouts in a row from Paramount and they want me back to make three-in-a-row for Paramount."

CLOBBERED BY HIS casting woes, "Cleop" producer Walter Wanger walked into the office of studio boss Buddy Adler, erased the original Oct. 15 starting date from Buddy's "Production Blackboard," and substituted "68 B. C.," that being the birth date of old Cleopatra herself!

Lauren Bacall will play a man who's murdered and reincarnated as a woman in George Axelrod's Broadway-bound farce, "Goodbye, Charlie." Lauren is Charlie, of course, and Cara Williams is the gal that she comes back to haunt. Does it remind you of "Blithe Spirit"? Or "Charlie's Uncle" (nee "Charlie's Aunt")?

RAGGED BEDSIDE from an ailing producer at St. Johns Hospital: "I would be much more touched by your visit, Mack, if it wasn't during studio working hours!"

Jerry Wald is wangling singer Jonny Mathis to play his first straight dramatic role in "The Billionaire." Marilyn Monroe has said yes to starring in it.

Sophia Loren and Carlo Ponti blocked the set of "American, Go Home!" in which Sophia's co-starring in Rome with Clark Gable, to bar Italy's Public Prosecutor. He's trying to serve a bigamy writ signed by Ponti's ex-wife, Giuliana Fiastri. Dawn Addams, similarly snarled by Italy's no-divorce laws, will file to divorce Prince Vittorio Massimo in Paris. Besides the Prince has custody of their son.

DENNIS HOPPER is the hipster who hipped Tuesday Weld to stick to her female "Rebel Comedian Jack Waldron, writing in the Lambs Club "Script," says: "I remember when Toots Shor was a bouncer at Leon and Eddie's ... Toots was so fat in those lean years that when he came to see me at my hotel, the manager made him ride the freight elevator."

"Hush money," claims Sammy Fuchs, is nothing new — he paid it to his niece for years not to sing around the house ... People who blast female stars who get into scandals should be reminded of some words attributed to Sam Goldwyn: "There was never a bad woman who wasn't good box office."

A White Russian informed us coincidentally at the Russian Bear that Khrushchev made a secret survey in the Soviet to find why Russians drink so much vodka and got the answer which evidently can't be disputed: they want to get tight.

Jessie James and the James Boys — whom I recently saw in a spectacular lounge performance in Las Vegas — turned out to be a group headed by the former B'way singer, Jessie James, and her husband, Timothy Gray. Speaking to a woman in the audience about her diamond clip, Jessie said, "You take care of that — that's worth just thousands of Green Stamps."

THE MIDNIGHT EARL ... Mary Martin's learning to yodel for "The Sound of Music" ... Porfirio Rubirosa's Paris estate is for sale; it was part of his divorce settlement from Doris Duke ... With Robert Paige leaving the "Big Payoff," TV's pretty Bess Myerson may take over as the first quiz show mistress of ceremonies ... Tony Curtis and Janet Leigh may join the American colony living in Switzerland. Remember the one-time screen heartthrob, Nancy Carroll? She's doing TV commercial — with her four grandchildren! ... George Sanders has turned songwriter (with a tune called "Our Time Is Now") ... Ex-Mayor Bill O'Dwyer will produce a TV series called "Bandito," in Mexico ... Montgomery Clift spotted Israeli star Haya Harareet — and asked for her autograph ... Without a Cause? publicity pose. And it looks like Tuesday is stuck with the no-shoes-no-makeup bit, unless she makes a quick channel switch. I don't think she will. As Dennis told her, "The wackier you act, the more publicity you'll get."

Gallie import Daniele Aubry did a one-night stand as the telephone girl on Tom Duggan's local TV show. It's a good bet she'll be back for more, if not ALL — because the Parisienne is another Genevieve.
